The Rules are deemed to be reasonable, binding on and shall apply equally to all Members without any form of discrimination.

Any act of commission or omission deemed a transgression of the MOI or Rules whether indicated as a transgression and/or carrying a penalty or not will be subject to the imposition of a penalty or other appropriate sanction in the discretion of the Board. Persistent transgressions may result in higher penalties and/or legal action at the discretion of the Board.

The Rules are considered to be neither restrictive, nor punitive, but rather as a judicious framework to safeguard and promote appropriate and fair interaction to the benefit of all living in the Development, being part of a community which shares a secure and high quality lifestyle through acceptable sets of Rules by which owners and occupiers of Erven in the Development may live together, reasonably and harmoniously, without interfering with one another's enjoyment, to the benefit of all.

Any waiver, relaxation, extension of time, delay or failure (together "Relaxation") by the Company in exercising any right under the Rules shall not be construed as a waiver of that right and shall not operate as an estoppel against the Company or affect the ability of the Company subsequently to exercising or enforcing any of its rights and the obligations of any Member, nor shall any Relaxation constitute a waiver of any such or other right. The waiver of any right under the Rules shall be binding on the Company only to the extent that the waiver has been reduced to writing and signed by the duly authorised representative(s) of the Company.
